

Amplified

This work is for any number of people in any social setting for any period of time. It is not a performance.

Directions:

Attach a lapel mic (avoid headsets and other highly visible devices) and a small amplified speaker to yourself out of immediate view. Set the volume in such a way that when you speak normally, your voice is very lightly amplified. Forget that you are amplified.

Jonathan Chen, April 1, 2010